About the Presenters

Lindsey A. Cannata, CFP®

Lindsey A. Cannata is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ at a boutique comprehensive financial planning firm located in Roselle, IL. Lindsey is particularly passionate about helping women in transition be it retirement, divorce, or loss of spouse. She strives to find the best solutions for her clients by integrating the emotional and analytical components of each decision.

Margaret A. Zuleger, J.D.

Margaret A. Zuleger, J.D., has been a licensed attorney since 1992. She believes it is important to try to respectfully end a marriage or relationship without letting the legal system destroy the family emotionally or financially. Margaret says "your goal is a good life when this process is done; my job is to help you meet that goal." You can read more about Margaret's work on her website, www.zulegerlaw.com.

Jessica L. Hutchison LCPC

Jessica L. Hutchison, is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor in private practice with offices in Schaumburg and Barrington, IL. At the core of her work is expertise in grief and loss, specifically sudden and traumatic deaths. Her work in grief led her to the marital world, as divorce mirrors death in many ways. The only difference is your partner is still here. You can read more about Jessica's work on her website, www.JLHutchison.com.
